For these talks in Cologne there are a limited number of places due to the government directives around the Corona Virus. You can book the full weekend only, and it is not possible to come to single talks. There will be a mandatory seating order for the entire weekend, which will then be kept for four weeks in case of the need to follow up any Corona tracking. Additionally it will be mandatory to wear a face mask in all parts of the building, at all times. The masks can be taken off as soon as you get to your seat. Please attend the talks only if you fully agree to the conditions above. Thank you for your understanding.

For registration please email: KarlTalks2020@gmail.com
The Price is 120 Euros for the weekend
Registration confirmation after receipt of payment

The location of the talks is just a couple of minutes walking distance from the main Cologne railway station. There is plenty of accommodation available in the city which is easily found via the usual platforms like www.booking.com, www.hrs.com or www.airbnb.com. A little further down the Rhine, outside the City Center is a large youth hostel which has some camper van parking places as well.
